

Token Dispenser

Customer will choose the desired service through this token dispenser. The service options would be shown in multi-language. Once the customer chose the service, based upon the current status of queue and their service nature, a token will be printed indicating token no, counter no and any promotional text. The Queue pro support both touch based and button based token dispenser.

Token Dispenser

Key Features

- ✓ Generates /Print tokens which contain date, branch, token number, list of selected services etc.
- ✓ Categorizes the customers with prioritizing the services.
- ✓ The system allows the system administrator to customize the menu / add remove service according to the business need
- ✓ Multiple services or services with paired selection in a single token.
- ✓ Multi-lingual support
- ✓ The Kiosk has flash promotional / compliance messages while idle.
- ✓ Generates the audio alerts (voice) and displays the information on the LCD.
- ✓ Support Customer Feedback option
- ✓ Integrated with open standard hardware platform; no proprietary hardware dependency
- ✓ Runs on Windows and Linux Operating System
- ✓ Easy Installation and configurable logo, background image and brand color

About Queue Pro:

Queue Pro is proven computerized queue management system designed to ensure disciplined & guided customer experience based on segment. Its advanced algorithm provides solution for centers with / without sitting spaces. It provides options for promoting information among the waiting customers. Enables center manager with statistics on waiting customers. With advanced administrator module and online reports, Queue Pro provides an opportunity to improve branch operation/services to the next level.